Example

The man, I understand, suffers from acrophobia. It is also something that people will not be able to overcome overnight. Overpowering a phobia of something is not a piece of cake. Anxiety and tension should be combated by people who suffer from phobias. Just walking up the stairs could provoke a heart attack. So, for the time being, the man will put his enjoyment aside for the sake of his life. Everything has a perfect timing. Everything happens at just the right time. He'll get over his fear in no time. He'll wait for his companions downstairs and then carry on to their next location. Anyway, there are numerous tourist attractions in Paris.

Example

The online learning system is the best means to create a perfect education setting befitted to the necessities of every learner. Online learning has various tools such as videos, PDFs, podcasts, and teachers can utilize all these tools as an element of their lesson plans. Online learning set-up excludes the expense points of student transportation, student meals, and most importantly, real estate. At the same time, it is true to say that all the course or study materials are ready online. Thus, producing a paperless learning atmosphere that is more affordable than a traditional learning system is advantageous to the environment. Since students can conduct online classes at home or location of choice, there are fewer chances of them missing out on lessons.

I anticipate the employee will not step down from her career. She will not put an end to it. Instead, she will take advantage of it as an opportunity to become competent at the task and in future tasks. Learning is a lifelong endeavor. People learn not only from school but also from their blunders and from others. She will then make every effort to make and adhere to her leader's guidance in order to complete her duty more efficiently. She will also encourage others to think positively and strive harder because there is always a light at the end of the tunnel. And at last, her efforts will be acknowledged and honored.
